Amas Musical Theatre, (Donna Trinkoff, Artistic Producer) presents a developmental reading of Windywoo and Her Naughty Naughty Pets, The Musical, By Wendy Ann Gardner is a new musical based on the popular Naughty Naughty Pets franchise featured on Cartoon Network, with books published by Disney's Hyperion Books for Children. The reading, which is open to the public, takes place as part of Amas Musical Theatre's Dare to Be Different Festival on Nov. 23rd @ 5:00 pm and Nov. 24th, 2019, @ 12:00 & 3:00 pm at the A.R.T./New York Theatres, Mezzanine Theatre, 502 West 53rd Street, NYC.

Windywoo is devastated to learn the building, where they reside, is being sold to a huge New York real estate developer! Their beloved neighborhood is changing, and Hector, the building owner, wants them out! Will the power of pets move the human heart and save the day? Against all odds, Windywoo keeps her family of pets together and learns that a home isn't as important as having someone to come home to.

Windywoo and Her Naughty Naughty Pets, The Musical runs approximately 75 minutes, with 14 songs, and is suitable for all ages.

Windywoo and Her Naughty Naughty Pets delivers a message of human kindness, love of pets, and the importance of families of all kinds. Windywoo empowers through determination, education, and sense of self by standing up for those she loves and triumphs by bringing all those she encounters together in a joyous celebration of the meaning of a family. This delightful story will appeal to audiences of all ages, with real-world situations, infectious songs, and irreverent humor.
